

Cook Says She Signed Affidavit In Order to Get Out of Jail

Minola McKnight repudiated the affidavit which she made at police station during the early stages of the Phagan investigation, and in which she tells of alleged conversations and incidents which occurred in the Frank home on the night and morning following the murder.

She followed the Chambers boy to the stand, and was questioned by Mr. Arnold.

"Where do you work?"

"With Mr. Emil Selig."

"Were you there on April 15th?"

"Yes."

"Where is Mr. and Mrs. Frank's room?"

"Toilet."

"Did you see Frank on the morning of the 15th?"

"Yes."

"At what time?"

"About 6:30 o'clock."

"Did you see him leave?"

"Yes."

"When did you next see him?"

"About 2 o'clock."

"What time did he have dinner?"

"It was ready when he came in."

"What time did he go home?"

"About 1:30 o'clock."

"Did you see him?"

"Yes, I saw him."

"Is Albert McKnight your husband?"

"Yes, I know him."

"Was he at the Selig home during dinner?"

"No."

"Was he there at any time of the day?"

"No."

"What time did Frank leave?"

"About 2 o'clock."

"Where did you see him next?"

"At 6:30 o'clock."

"Did he eat supper?"

"Yes."

"Did you see him the next day?"

"Yes, somewhere about 10 o'clock."

"Did the detective arrest him?"

"Yes. They took me next to Mr. Dorsey's office and took to the police station."

"Was Albert your husband, then?"

"No."

"What did they try to get you to say?"

"I signed the affidavit."

"Snowball" Bailey Repudiates Testimony Given by Conley

Gordon Bailey, the negro whom Jim Conley mentioned in his story as "Snowball," was not put on the stand.

He denied that he had observed Frank drink Conley to appear at the pencil factory on Saturday the 25th, and declared he had never seen Jim watching the door for Frank or anyone else.

He was questioned by Mr. Arnold.

"You said Jim took him and went to the factory?"

"Yes, I did."

"When did you work during April of this year?"

"At the National Pencil factory."

"Did you see Jim Conley?"

"Yes, I did."

"Did you ever hear Frank bring any one in to the factory?"

"No, sir."

"Did you ever see Frank bring any one in to the factory?"

"No, sir."

"Did you ever see any one?"

"No, sir."

Women on Stand Deny Statements Made About Them by Dalton

After the attack on C. B. Dalton's character and the statements from four of his former fellow citizens that he never believed him on oath, the defense put on the stand in order, Miss Laura Atkinson, of 20 Ella street, and Mrs. Minnie Smith, of 148 South Forsyth.

Both of the women denied statements made in regard to them by Dalton when he was on the stand last week for the state, and their testimony was used by the defense as a further stab for the man who declared and drank with women in his office day after day and on Saturday afternoon and holiday.

"Where do you work?" Mr. Arnold asked.

"At the Empire Printing company," she replied.

"Has that any connection with the National Pencil company?"

"No, sir, none that I know of."

"Do you know C. B. Dalton?"

"I have met him three or four times."

"Did you ever work for the National Pencil company?"

"No, sir, I did not."

"Did you ever meet Dalton, going to or from the factory, or ever go with him to the Buick car factory?"

"I have not met him there."

"Did you ever go to the factory with Dalton?"

"I have not."

"I object to that," said Mr. Dorsey.

Nothing Unusual About Conduct Of Frank Declares Emil Selig

Emil Selig, father-in-law of the suspected man, was put upon the stand to testify to Frank's conduct during the day and night of the tragedy and days that preceded his arrest.

"You and Mr. and Mrs. Frank lived in the same home?" he was asked by Mr. Arnold.

"Yes, at 68 East Georgia avenue."

"Were you at home on April 25 and 26?"

"Yes, I was."

"What time did you get home for dinner on the 25th?"

"About 1:15 o'clock."

"Were the ladies at home and at the table?"

"Yes, I saw them."

"Did you notice anything unusual about Frank?"

"No."

"What did he do?"

"Sat down at the table and ate his dinner as usual."

"Do you remember when he left?"

"When did you see him next?"

"Before supper."

"What time did he get home?"

"About 4:30 o'clock."

"Did you have any guests that night?"

"Yes, a number of ladies—five in all—were there in play cards."

"Did Frank drink?"

"No, he did not."

"Read about Umpire."

"No, he sat in the hall reading some newspaper."

Three Hours Necessary to Prepare Financial Sheet, Says Accountant

C. F. Pollard, a certified public accountant with the American Audit company, was the first witness called Tuesday by the defense. He testified that he examined the financial sheet and that it took him three hours and eleven minutes to complete the work that Leo Frank claims he did on Saturday afternoon, April 26.

"Have you gone over the financial sheet of the National Pencil company for the week ending April 27?" Mr. Arnold asked.

"Yes, I have gone over a copy furnished me."

"You also furnished the data and method of compiling this sheet?"

"Yes."

"As an expert you know how long it would take to prepare it with all the data furnished, with the jury your idea of it?"

"I was called into this to establish the time necessary to compile this financial sheet," said Mr. Pollard, "and I went over each sheet and record and made copies and timed myself on each one."

"Did you find Mr. Frank's calculations correct?"

"My figures show a discrepancy of one and a half hours in the number of pencils made."

"Was that much?"

"No, it was so small that I had to check back to see if I or the person who first figured it had made the mistake."

"Now, how long did it take you to complete the work?"

"Three hours and eleven minutes."

"Was that, in your opinion, a reasonable time?"

"That was as quick as I could do it."

"Was Hard Work?"

"It took good and constant work."

"Did it?"

"If there had been interruptions it would have taken longer."

"It would for me?"

"From what record did the error of one and a half hours of pencils come?"

"From the records of report of April 26."

"Well, that mistake occurred in the fact that Mr. Frank said he had not drunk, and that would be held to Frank's account by the jury."

"No, I should say not under those circumstances," said Pollard.

"Were there any errors that day?"

"Yes, there was an error of 45 cents that day in value of products delivered April 18."

"Was that Mr. Frank, either?"

"No, it was Mr. Arnold, either."

"Did you find any errors in the books and accounts?"

"Yes, I found one error in the books and accounts."

"It is rather unusual, isn't it? I mean, I am like that?"

"No, I often called upon to say that I am like that."

"You think this three hours and eleven minutes a reasonable time?"

"Yes, it is for me."

"Did you make the mistakes in the figures?"

"I can't say of my own knowledge who did any of the work or made the mistake, but I can say that the figures were on the reports for April 18 and 19."

"Could you tell whose mistakes they were?"

"No."

"Well, Mr. Accountant, isn't it true that anybody can work faster on his own books than on the books of another and where he knows exactly where to go for all data, that anyone else can?"

"Yes, that is true."

"Thank you," said Mr. Hooper.

Mrs. Selig Follows Husband on Stand in Leo M. Frank Case

Mrs. Emil Selig, mother-in-law of Frank, followed her husband to the stand.

"Mrs. Selig, is your health bad or good?" she was asked by Mr. Arnold.

"Bad."

"How long have Mr. and Mrs. Frank been living in your home?"

"For the past two years."

"Has the sideboard in the dining room been in the same position since Memorial day?"

"No."

"What time did you have lunch on April 24?"

"I don't know."

"Did Frank eat his dinner?"

"Yes, he ate it with us."

"What time did you and Mrs. Frank leave?"

"About 5:30 to go to the opera."

"When did you next see Frank?"

"At exactly 6:12 P. M. We were passing through downtown in a car and saw him enter a Whitehall street drug store."

"Did you notice anything unusual about him that day?"

"No, nothing in the world."

"Was he cross-examined by Mr. Dorsey?"

"Whom did you leave at home on the afternoon of the tragedy?"

"The cook, Mr. Frank and my husband."

"When you clean the dining room, you move about the sideboard, don't you, and replace it?"

"Yes, it is on rollers."

Testimony of Office Boy Causes Warm Clash Between the Lawyers

Philip Chambers, an ex-office boy in Frank's office, was put on the stand during the afternoon session. It was during an examination by the solicitor in which questions were put regarding alleged improper advances the accused man had made to the boy that a sensational argument was projected between the state and defense. Judge Roan ruled in behalf of the defense.

He was questioned by Mr. Arnold.

"How did you work?"

"I do not."

"Do you know Dalton?"

"Yes, I know Dalton."

"Did you know a woman called Daisy Hopkins?"

"Yes, I know her."

"Did you know a man named C. B. Dalton?"

"I do not."

"As far as you know, are you the only Mr. or Miss Smith who lives at 148 South Forsyth street and works for the National Pencil factory?"

"No, I do not know of any other who does."

"Do you know Mr. Frank?"

"Yes, I do."

"Have you ever talked to him?"

"Yes, I have."

"Do you ever see him six or eight times in about three weeks?"

"No, not over."

"Did you see him without cross-examination?"

"Yes, I did."

Miss Corinthia Hall Testifies About Her Visit to Factory

Miss Corinthia Hall, who visited the pencil factory just a few minutes before Mary Phagan entered on Memorial day to draw her pay, took the stand late in the afternoon.

"Where do you work?" she was asked.

"In the pencil factory in the finishing department."

"Do you recall April 25?"

"Yes."

"Did you go to the factory that day?"

"Yes."

"What time did you enter the building?"

"About 11:15."

"Who was with you?"

"Mrs. Emma Freeman."

"Did you go to Frank's office?"

"Yes, as we came down from the fourth floor."

"What for?"

"To use the telephone."

Schlitz in Brown Bottles does not have that disagreeable taste

so often found in beer in light bottles. We reprint below an extract from an opinion rendered by another famous scientist:

"Bottles of strong glass should be selected. They should never be of colorless glass, inasmuch as through the influence of light the beer will not only take on a disagreeable odor and taste, but will also become turbid." (Lintrner.)

Extract from Die Malt und Bierbereitung, Published by E. Lohmeyer, Director of the Brewing Academy in Augsburg, Tenth Edition, Stuttgart, 1900, page 680.

This is one of the authorities quoted by Dr. Robert Wahl, President of the Wahl-Henius Institute of Fermentology, to corroborate his own opinion.

Schlitz is made pure and the Brown Bottle keeps it pure from the brewery to your glass.

"Did he say anything?"

"Yes, he asked Mrs. Freeman how was the bird."

"Was anyone with him?"

"His stenographer, Mr. Arthur White and two men."

"Who was in the fourth floor?"

"Arthur White, Harry Daham and Mary Barrett."

"Dorsey began the cross-examination."

"You say you left at 15 minutes until 12, did you meet Holloway going away?"

"Yes."

"Didn't you swear before the coroner that you arrived at the factory at 11:45?"

"I said it was 11:45 when I left."

"Where did you meet Quinlan?"

"At the Buick car factory near the factory."

"What time was it—about 5 until 11?"

"I don't know exactly, we had been in the place and had ordered sandwiches and coffee when Quinlan came in."

"How long would you estimate the time?"

"I don't know."

"You may come down."

"Mrs. Emma Freeman, who married at the pencil factory a short time before the tragedy, and who accompanied Miss Hall there on the 25th, went to the stand to corroborate the Hall girl."

NO GOVERNMENT MONEY FOR SPECULATIVE BANKS

Treasury Department to Make the Banks Report Money Loaned or Borrowed.

This policy of the treasury department was announced today, when Acting Comptroller of the Currency Kain in connection with a call for the condition of national banks at the close of business August 9, asked every national bank in the country to report detailed information of all money loaned or borrowed.

tributions of the $50,000,000, the treasury department will aim to differentiate the various types of credit facilities—such as loans, overdrafts, or loan in connection with trade or other business or relative operations or are chronic borrowers and those who endeavor to relieve financial strain wherever it exists.

Information of this character, it was announced, will now be regularly obtained by the controller of the circulation as a feature of his calls for the condition of the circulation of the country. The treasury department may know what sections of the country are in need of additional circulation at various periods of the year. This information is of far greater importance than the change in the character of information banks will be required.

Kane Explains the Call.
"All banks have been requested to send in detailed statements of all money loaned to other banks as well as all money borrowed from other banks in the form of rediscounts, bills payable or in any other manner," said Acting Comptroller Kane. "This will determine what sections of the country are in need of additional circulation at stated periods of the year, what banks accommodate their correspondents in such sections and, in addition, should also enable the controller to more easily ascertain what banks borrow in order to meet legitimate discounts and varying conditions.

One primary purpose in seeking detailed information is to discover which banks are borrowing for speculative purposes and which are borrowing for normal needs.

the country. The treasurer said it was said, wanting a single unit of institutions that are not using the resources to help the crop moving ahead so that it would be in a position to decline them special deposits of the government to relieve stringency and place the money with banks that are sending currency to districts where it is needed.

The information collected probably will be available to congress for use in connection with the question of amending the pending currency bill.

CONTEST IS ON FOR NEW JUDGE

An Active Stir Precipitated by the Passage of the Bill Creating the New Fulton County Circuit.

The recent enactment by the present session of the general assembly of the bill introduced by the Fulton county delegation to create an additional Fulton superior court has met with general acclamation by court-house friends and by members of the local bar, who have complained for many years of the congested condition of the local court dockets, which they claim will be greatly relieved by the additional court.

Since the passage of the bill, friends of Judge J. R. Ross, of the Stone Mountain Circuit, have freely predicted that the appointment would be rendered him, as he has heretofore acted as an ex-officio judge of the criminal branch of Fulton superior court, in virtue of his position as presiding judge of the Stone Mountain circuit.

It has also been rumored that in the event of Judge Ross's appointment to preside over the newly created court, the vacancy on the bench of the additional circuit would be filled by the promotion of Hon. C. H. H. Palmer, who is the present presiding judge of the Stone Mountain circuit.

These rumors have precipitated an active stir in political circles, and numerous candidates have been named for appointment as judge and presiding general of the Stone Mountain circuit, based upon the assumption that Judge Ross would be transferred to the jurisdiction of Fulton superior court.

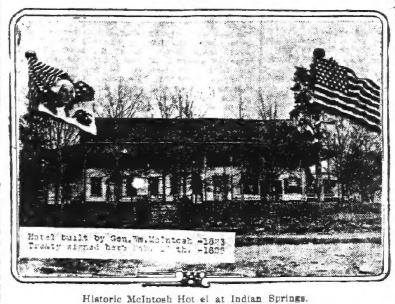

On the other hand, announcements have been made that the removal of Judge Ross from the Stone Mountain circuit should be secured for the distinguished honor of the Stone Mountain circuit, which he has long presided over, and who claim that the appointment of a judge for Fulton superior court from the bar of another circuit would constitute an undignified reflection upon the Atlanta bar.

Transferring Atlanta Lawyer.
It is reported that a petition has been circulated addressed to the governor, asking removal of the present presiding judge of the Stone Mountain circuit, and the transfer of the same to the jurisdiction of the Stone Mountain circuit, which he has long presided over, and who claim that the appointment of a judge for Fulton superior court from the bar of another circuit would constitute an undignified reflection upon the Atlanta bar.

At a meeting held on Tuesday at the office of Hon. J. R. Ross, a prominent Atlanta attorney, which meeting was largely attended by the local bar, resolutions were adopted, and it was decided to petition the governor to remove the present presiding judge of the Stone Mountain circuit, and transfer the same to the jurisdiction of the Stone Mountain circuit.

Attorneys Talk.
Mr. Ross, who presided over the meeting, said: "I have been in favor of the principle that the Stone Mountain circuit should be transferred to the jurisdiction of the Stone Mountain circuit, which he has long presided over, and who claim that the appointment of a judge for Fulton superior court from the bar of another circuit would constitute an undignified reflection upon the Atlanta bar."

To Continue Fight Next Year For Historic McIntosh Hotel

Historic McIntosh Hotel at Indian Springs.

While the bill now in the appropriation committee asking for an appropriation for the purchase and preservation of the old McIntosh hotel, at Indian Springs, will not have an opportunity to come in for the consideration of the legislature at this session, its friends are hopeful that it may receive favorable consideration at the next session.

World-Famed Organist to Be Heard In Atlanta During Next Few Months

Burnie Wyatt, the famous English organist from the Crystal Palace, London, will appear in Atlanta, Georgia, as the soloist at the first organ concert of the Atlanta Organ Society, which will be held at the Auditorium, under the auspices of the Atlanta Organ Society.

Mr. Wyatt will be the first of a number of distinguished organists who will appear during the next few months in the series of organ recitals given by the Atlanta Organ Society, which is a branch of the Musical Fraternity Association, and is a world-famous organization.

It is reported that he has made a fine record at the position of that instrument, and he has dedicated himself to the study of it, and it is said that the organ has already received the attention of a large number of the Atlanta audience.

EIGHTH WARD VOTERS INDOORSE JOHN OWENS

Resolutions Adopted Favoring His Candidacy for Aldermanic Board.

Resolutions strongly endorsing the candidacy of John S. Owens for alderman of the eighth ward, were adopted at a largely attended meeting of citizens to the ward last night.

The meeting was called to order by General A. J. West. He stated its purpose, and paid a glowing tribute to Mr. Owens. Hon. Edgar Watkins was made chairman of the meeting and H. F. West was elected secretary. Speeches endorsing Mr. Owens were made by a number of his friends.

The meeting did not take up the matter of endorsing a candidate for the aldermanic place. Frank Reynolds has announced for the position, and there are only two announced candidates in the field—Mr. Owens for the aldermanic place, and Mr. Reynolds for council. Mr. Reynolds is being urged to enter against Mr. Owens. It is expected that he will enter within the next ten days.

PART OF THE BIG CROWD WHO WENT ON THE CONSTITUTION AUTO TRIP YESTERDAY

BIG CROWD SEES ATLANTA PLANTS

Four Big Autos Carry Happy Crowd of Merchants on a Sight-Seeing Trip—Visit Many Atlanta Factories.

The free automobile trip which The Constitution gave to the visiting merchants yesterday was one big success all the way through. Although a sharp shower of rain fell just a few minutes before the scheduled starting time, nevertheless the skies cleared in good time and very few of the merchants were deterred from taking the trip on that account. After a brief delay on account of the rain, the cars left The Constitution building about 2:40 o'clock. There were four big trucks and each one was crowded to capacity. They made a round of many leading Atlanta manufacturing plants and the royal entertainment received at each stopping place will linger long in the memories of all as one of the pleasures of pleasant experience. There is only room for a brief description of the trip here, but all Hawkins was on the trip and has vividly described it in his letter which appears here today.

Thanks are due to the owners of the four trucks who so kindly supplied the transportation facilities. M. Nabors, manager of the Auto Motor company, furnished two of the trucks used, a Federal and an Alto. Another came from the Atlanta Paper company and this also was an Alto truck. The third was a Dage-Hartford truck and was furnished by L. S. Crane. Two much cannot be said for the courtesy of these gentlemen, and also for that of Greenberg & Bond who kindly placed the trucks which were placed in every truck.

PLAN ORGANIZATION OF STATE CHAMBER

A plan of general organization, the selection of a vice president from each county of the state and a number of other matters were discussed at a meeting of the executive committee of the state chamber of commerce in the second chamber of the legislature yesterday morning.

The general plan of organization, which was presented yesterday, will be revised by the chairman and secretary, and submitted at the big rally at Mason on Monday 16. The chairman was directed to apply for a charter.

Charles F. McKinney, former president of the Greater Chamber of Commerce, will serve as secretary until the Monday meeting. Temporary headquarters will be in the rooms of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce.

A number of business men have been requested to speak at the meeting, including the following: Mr. J. B. McPherson, president of the Georgia Manufacturers' Association; Mr. J. B. McPherson, president of the Georgia Manufacturers' Association; Mr. J. B. McPherson, president of the Georgia Manufacturers' Association.

Si Tells His Impressions Of the Sight-Seeing Trip

Although Late Starting, the Courtesy of Passing Autoists Enables Him to Catch Up and Join the Crowd.

Dear Folks—I reckon I must be mighty slow, but I must get it over today. Yess, when that first crowd came on up I was of course at the back of the line, but I was not at all discouraged as the hull thing would be off, as I kept riding on each my dinner, and never heard a note. But a fellow at the table next to mine was as how he was going down to see, and then he came a minute up to me by the door as how they was startin in four big trucks and let me to come on. Well, I rode out when I got to the office, the bunch had started. I was standin hearin how blum foolish I was to get left behind, when a fellow in a automobile passed and offered me a lift. I told him when I wanted to get and he hit up a rise smart as and we had some far before we catches up with the big crowd. After that we kept riding up and sees all there was to see. We were first to a place called Van-House, where we saw a lot of fine looking girls and some of the smartest dresses and the most of the women. Young ones wear. Next we went to the A. M. Robinson Co. I new this place as I have bin here before. But I once up and sees a lot of fine looking girls workin at makin overalls, and shirts and such and then we goes on to the next place.

BIG BARBECUE IS TODAY'S FEATURE

Barbecue and Brunswick Stew at Ponce de Leon Will Undoubtedly Prove Vastly Popular Item in Program.

Today brings one of the most popular of all the different entertainments which are being offered to the visiting delegates to the convention. This is the big barbecue and Brunswick stew, which will be given at Ponce de Leon at 2 p. m. Cars will have the double first building promptly at 12 noon and will first take a special sight-seeing trip around the city. They will reach the scene of the operations at 1 and immediately on their arrival the barbecue will be served. It will not be given until the arrival of these special cars. From past conventions the fact is drawn that the barbecue is always a leader in popularity on the entertainment program. Last year it was talked of for weeks after wherever a few southern merchants gathered together. This year is going to beat last year's record. The people who have seen in cases of this event are James H. Little, president of the Dougherty-Little Hardware company, assisted by E. K. Barnes who serve the barbecue and the most fastidious of the one. This list of names is such as to inspire absolute confidence in the breast of the most fastidious of the one. Suitable food, merchants-cars have suitable food at noon when, and will take you to the barbecue grounds by the best route.

PANAMA CANAL READY FOR SHIPS IN OCTOBER

New York, August 12.—That the first ship would pass through the Panama canal in October was the opinion expressed today by Lieutenant Colonel Eugene Wilson, U. S. A., on his arrival here from Panama for a two-month vacation. Colonel Wilson is an assistant to Colonel Gheblin in the construction of the canal. Colonel Wilson said that the two oceans would be joined in September and that by next spring the canal would be ready for the vessels of the world. The fortifications, he added, would not be completed until after the canal is opened.

CHILE CON CARNE

A visitor who expressed himself as particularly delighted with the convention was F. E. Cook, from Shady Dale, Ga. Mr. Cook is in charge of the general merchandise store known as J. M. Cook at that place, and is a young man only 24 years of age who has nevertheless made a big success in the business world. He was educated at the Georgia Military college and the University of Georgia, and is a living proof of the value of these institutions in making a young man for a business career.

Perry B. Harris with the A. M. Robinson company entertained two good merchants friends of his last week. They were J. Terry Wood and Thomas S. Smith of Greer, S. C. These gentlemen are strong social men of that state and enjoyed their stay exceedingly, both for social and business reasons.

The New South Bakery has been exhibiting a handsome silver cup in a downtown window for the past ten days. This is the prize cup which they are going to give the winning basketball team at Atlanta grocery store, which will be held at Warm Springs, Ga. today.

N. K. Smith, the shoe man, is wearing the usual "happy smile" this week. He says the reason is the many good merchant friends who have called at his sample room during the convention.

J. G. Addy, with the M. C. Kiser company, entertained two leading merchants of Fayetteville, Ga., yesterday in the person of Messrs. John McCallum and M. L. Roberts, of the firm of Black, McCallum & Roberts, of that place.

RATE FOR EXAMINATION OF STATE BANKS RAISED

A measure passed the house on Tuesday raising the rate for the examination of state banks and adding two more state banks interested in the course of the state bank examination.

The increase of the rate is only sufficient to pay the salaries of the two additional examiners and it is understood, has been agreed to by the state banks.

REGISTRATION BILL PASSED BY HOUSE

Receives Big Majority After Heated Discussion on the Part of South Georgia Representatives.

The House on Tuesday morning passed the bill for permanent registration by a vote of 164 to 13, and had it immediately transmitted to the Senate.

The Senate has already notified the House that it will not consider any measure, which had not been submitted to it before last Monday, but Tuesday's action of the House will at least put a thumb screw near the top of the calendar of the upper body for next session, at which time it is considered likely that the bill will become a law.

The discussion of the bill brought forth the startling revelation that should the bill become a law it may interfere with a ballot marked with an "X" which was initiated on the floor of the House in Savannah. Mr. Shuptrine and Mr. Myrick, the representatives of Chatham county, led the opposition to the measure.

Mr. Shuptrine, of Muscogee, advanced the bill and was opposed by Mr. Shuptrine, who opposed it.
The bill was passed by a vote of 164 to 13.

Conditions in Savannah.
The State of Georgia, following Mr. Shuptrine, advanced the measure. The bill was passed by a vote of 164 to 13.

who have paid their taxes for that year. The tax collector shall furnish this list to the board of registrars and shall verify the correctness of the list before approving the list.

The bill does not in any way repeal or modify the law requiring the payment of these six months before election.

Amendments Adopted.

Two amendments to the bill were adopted.

One of these, by Mr. Wright, provided that a man offering himself to vote be required to identify himself by presenting a written form to his residence during the six months prior to election and to all names and aliases, in addition to the cash now required in contested votes.

The second amendment, offered by Mr. Fullbright, of Burke, and approved by Mr. Wright, was adopted, and provided that the board of registrars after a hearing, shall remove from the permanent registration book any name whose ground of qualification is exposed to view. This amendment applies in particular to the constitution of the board of registrars, and provides for the removal of any person who is not a citizen of the United States, or who is not a resident of the county in which he is registered.

The bill was passed by a vote of 164 to 13.

Atlanta Paper Co. A. Miller Moss and a Mister Harris shows us round here and we see them making corrugated paper, boxes and such like. They give us all a smart little paper drinkin' cup and we all has a drink of water. Then we hits up agin for the Atlanta Store works. Mister Jones was a waitin' fer us and show us the white hot metal rubbish that he makes his stoves out of. That was a mighty pretty site, I kin tell yew. Our nex stop was the Nunnally & McCrea Co. whar they was makin overalls, shirts, jeans and such. They show us round here agin and we has another mighty nice time. Then we see them Frank E. Block Co. whar they makes these here cracker blakies and candy and sweet stuff. They gives us all the candy we wants fer eat and a big package of hidin' a piece. At the McCord Stewart Co. Mister Hudson shows us and takes us all thru their place and gives everyone a pound tin of coffee. It shows dose smell good while they is roasting it, I kin tell yew. I given everyone to all the men folks and the women folks, we gits some Mr. Baking Co. We see them makin bread and cakes and cookies and then makes our last stop at the Atlanta Show Case Co. Mister McGuire was waitin' fer us with a big tub full of lemonade and we shure did clean her out. He shows us whar they makes them fancy show cases and things and then we had to come on home. We had intended to call at the Diala Frolic & Entertainment Co. whar they makes pickles, but it was gettin so late at this time that we had to go home to eat and so we see as how we kin go ther ourselves later on. I had a mighty good time on the trip and I hopes as how you'll as went enjoyed yourselves to. Tommy I aim to go to the Barbours and see about whar they clean here this mornin' I aim to go before I leave town. I reckon I'll see you all at the out and ill then affectionately yours,

ATLANTA'S STRIDES FROM DAY TO DAY

All the News of Real Estate Building.

Dr. E. L. Connolly, owner of the Brown and Allen bldg., at the southeast corner of Whitehall and Alabama, announced yesterday that he had been approached by a local architect, who wished to draw up plans for a six-story modern office building for that corner.

The structure, should it be erected, will be one of the most modern in Atlanta. It is said to be of French construction throughout and to add to one of the finest corners of the city. This would, no doubt, be a desirable place in the city. As matters now stand, there is a vacant three-story office building on the south side of the city, the Atlanta National bank building.

Dr. Connolly said that he had made no plans to build for such a structure, but in case the architect's specifications looked promising, he might take some action on the matter.

Whitcomb Terrace Sales.
J. T. Whitcomb has been selected as the inventor of the S. Mitchell house place at 215 Whitehall street for $1000. The property is in the city.

Manufacturers' Exhibit Touring.
Under the remaining space in the proposed manufacturers' exhibit is taken by Tuesday, August 19. The project will be abandoned according to W. H. Leary, of the industrial bureau, who is working with the committee in charge. As matters now stand, a little less than thirty manufacturers have taken space, not near enough to make the exhibit successful.

Contrary to general expectation, the local men have not taken to the project as it was expected. The new chamber of commerce building, in which the exhibit was to be placed, had been decided in construction as long as ago as the original plan.

Three such as Nashville, Chattanooga, Cincinnati and others have made a number of their permanent exhibits, and it is now a pity that we cannot do the same. It is said that the exhibit will be held in the city, if Atlanta really wants to have the exhibit, the city must be prepared to do so.

Limited Motor Motors.
The United Motor Sales company, now the Maxwell motor company, will soon move from their present location to a new building, near the corner of Whitehall and Alabama. The new building will be a two-story structure, and it is now a pity that we cannot do the same. It is said that the exhibit will be held in the city, if Atlanta really wants to have the exhibit, the city must be prepared to do so.
